The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

SHARING GOD'S WORD

1. Scott Hahn

Readings:

Deuteronomy 4:32–34, 39–40

Psalm 33:4–6, 9, 18–20, 22

Romans 8:14–17

Matthew 28:16–20

Last Sunday, we celebrated the sending of the Spirit, which sealed God's new covenant and made a new creation. In this new creation, we live in the family of God, who has revealed himself as a Trinity of love. We share in His divine nature through His Body and Blood (see 2 Peter 1:4). This is the meaning of the three feasts that cap the Easter season— Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi. Read More

SPIRITUAL SMOOTHIE: THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We always start our prayers by making the Sign of the Cross to remind us of the greatest mystery of our faith: the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity. It is not a mystery as seen on TV, where CSI checks a crime scene, collecting fingerprints, DNA evidence, and witnesses; it's so big that it doesn't fit into our head. Read More:

Ponder the Trinity | Liturgy Live Trinity Sunday

This week on the podcast we talk about pondering the Trinity. How it is so difficult to teach the mystery of the Trinity because all examples that we try to use fail. Trying to describe the Trinity is the easiest way to accidentally stray into heresy. We accept by faith and ponder the mystery, and allow it to inform and inspire us. Read More:

How we can help build up the kingdom of God on earth

Throughout the Old Testament and the letters of Paul we hear that God has broken into the lives of women and men while they were journeying through life, utterly transforming their awareness of themselves, their understanding of life, and their appreciation of God..For More:
